A new guest is Walking into Cherry Capital Comic Con

Cherry Capital Comic Con is proud to welcome Cooper Andrews to our 2017 show. Cooper will be available for autographs and photos all three days of the show.

In a world where geeks are finally represented fairly on television, AMC's breakout hit Halt and Catch Fire is king. Cooper Andrews' character, Yo-Yo, has always been a reliable source of good times—which is vital when the show takes one of its frequent sharp left turns to heartbreak city. Leaving his keyboard and every other piece of technology behind, Cooper is one of the many new faces camped in The Kingdom during The Walking Dead's seventh season. As King Ezekiel's right hand man, Jerry, he's a crackup. His one-liners perfectly balance the King's old world charm. Cooper also appeared alongside Jason Momoa and Julianna Nicholson during the second season of Sundance's The Red Road.

Cooper's other television work includes a ton of time spent on sound departments for various productions, as well as guest starring on Hawaii Five-O, Limitless, and Your Pretty Face is Going to Hell. He has filmed several independent films, including Golgotha and Mandie and the Secret Tunnel. His upcoming film is Billy Lynn's Long Halftime Walk, directed by Ang Lee, and starring Kristen Stewart and Vin Diesel.

Cherry Capital Comic Con will take place May 26th-28th at the Grand Traverse Resort and Spa in Acme, MI. The show will feature artists, vendors, guests and more. Fun for the whole family will include two costume contests, panels about the comic book industry, and the LucasFilm endorsed Star Wars costume troupes the 501st Legion and Rebel Legion. Ticket information can be found at cherrycapitalcomiccon.com.
